

RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY

Authority

Board of Directors, Alberta Construction Association

Objectives

- ▶ Assist ACA to champion research and technology adoption to improve Alberta construction industry performance
- ▶ Assist ACA to become a construction research and technology information resource for member companies
- ▶ Foster stakeholder collaboration in support of research and technology adoption in Alberta's construction industry

Chairperson

Appointed by the Management Committee

- ▶ 1 member of the Board of Directors, Alberta Construction Association
- ▶ Executive Director, Alberta Construction Association
- ▶ 1 member representing each local construction association wishing to participate
- ▶ 1 representative from each Associate wishing to participate at their own expense
- ▶ up to 4 representatives from Alberta universities and technical institutes engaged in construction research or technology development or transfer (cost of participation in meetings to be covered by ACA)
- ▶ an owner's representative (cost of participation in meetings covered by ACA)
- ▶ such other members as may be invited by the Management Committee and/or Board of Directors

Secretariat

The ACA Administrative Director

Tenure

Annual meeting to the eve of the following annual meeting. Terms are renewable.

Terms of Reference

- ▶ Identify member information needs in the areas of information / communication technologies, productivity enhancement, sustainable practices, new techniques
- ▶ Advise ACA on the best means for ACA to become a construction research and technology information resource for members
- ▶ Liaise with Canadian Construction Association, research institutions, and other stakeholders
- ▶ Develop submissions in response to government initiatives and public discussions

◆◆◆◆